

Globalization and Transcultural Issues in the New World Order

Atila Silkü	Remembering Prof. Dr. M. ReÅıt K��kboyac�±
Pete Remington	Introduction
Part 1:	Local and Global: Who Controls What?
Birol Akg�n	Localism versus Globalism: An Emerging Cleavage in Turkish Politics
Melek Atabey	Global Media and the Turkish Experience
TuÅrul Åter	Colonising Cyberspace: Is the Internet/WWW the New Commons Under Threat of Enclosure?
Åzerif Hepcan	A New Challenge in the Globalisation Process: Sustainable Urban Environmental Management
Part 2:	Individual Responses (I): The Case for Literature and A Case of Cultural Studies
Erendiz Atas�	Can Literature Build a Bridge?
Sema Bulutsuz	A Portrait of the Artist as a Parasite
Eugene Ostashevsky	Translating Poetics, A Parable
Mine Gencel Bek	Questioning the Division of Political Economy and Cultural Studies
Part 3:	Individual Responses (II): Women Rewriting Difference
Leslie Frost & Defne Ersin	Hamam: Reflections on a Turkish Bath
Mary Louise Hill	Galata Trip-Tik: The Traveller as Improv-Artist in Modern Turkey
Jeffrey Howlett	Nawal El-Saadawi's Women at Point Zero: The Birth of a Native Egyptian Feminism

Part 4:	Media and Gender
Konca Yumlu & Nimet Ömür	Gender in Domestic Television Serials and Its Reflection in Personal Communication
Nuran Erol	Unmasking Savage Identities in Turkish Popular Culture
Part 5:	Community, Nation and State
Ahmet BeÄYe	American Democracy with Regard to Cultural Diversity
Zafer F. Yörük	Representing the Other: The British Documentary Movement and Hollywood Cinema
Peter Loizos	Troubling Films and Troubled Peoples: British TV and African Conflicts
Edited	With an introduction by Pete Remington
Advisory Editors:	Günseli Sönmez İşçi & Gülriz Büken